

Conversations on political economy or, A series of dialogues supposed to take place between a minister of state and representatives of the agricultural, manufacturing, shipping, colonial, commercial, and monied interests, as well as of the labouring class. This book, Conversations on political economy, by Joseph Pinsent, is a replication of a book originally published before 1821. It has been restored by human beings, page by page, so that you may enjoy it in a form as close to the original as possible.
