Not illustrated. 1903 Excerpt: ...Senate Pro Tempore. 3 ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PUBLIC PRINTER FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDED JUNE 30, 1903. To the Senate and House of Representatives: The construction of the new extension of the Government Printing Office building is so nearly completed that all portions of it are now occupied by operatives, machinery, and materials. Commodious as the new structure is, it is not large enough to accommodate all of the force of employees. Two divisions, however, viz, the specifications and branch bindery, heretofore located in the Union Building on G street, near Seventh street, have been transferred to the old building, corner of North Capitol and H streets, thus saving an expense in rental of $6,500 per year, and it is probable that at the close of the present month the document division, for several years located in the Union Building, will be transferred to the old Government Printing Office building, thus effecting a saving of an additional expense of $10,500 per annum. The transfer of these three divisions will have the further beneficial effect of consolidating the working force of the office, and saving the expenditure of time and money in transportation of materials and products. During the second session of the Fifty-fifth Congress an appropriation of $225,000 was made for the purchase of land as a site for a fireproof extension of the Government Printing Office building, title to be obtained by condemnation proceedings. The total expenditure for the purchase of the land was $190,028.06, and an unexpended balance of $34,971.94 was covered into the Treasury of the United States. During the third session of the Fifty-fifth Congress an appropriation of $2,000,000 was made for the construction of a fireproof building on the site acquired as before mentioned. S...
